The Honorable Isaac V. Figir
Speaker
17th FSM Congress
Palikir, Pohnpei State, FM 96941

Dear Speaker Figir:

I hereby designate the following congressional act which I have grudgingly signed to become Public Law No. 17-33, as follows:

I initially thought of allowing this act to become law without signature, because it is clear that the amendment is not well-thought of. The original appropriation which was Public Law No. 15-32 has undergone 12 amendments already. The act is another amendment that is not properly planned, not supported by data and shows no commitment to the original legislative intent. In my view, so much of Congress’ time has been wasted on this matter.

You will recall that I signed on previous amendments of public project appropriations with the full expectation that Congress will not repeat the same practice. Hence, I am compelled to reiterate my observations in this regard.

With warm personal regards. I remain,

Sincerely,

Manny Mori
President
