A RESOLUTION

Requesting the President to adopt a code of ethics for the National Government of the Federated States of Micronesia.

WHEREAS, no standard code of ethics has been adopted to cover the National Government of the Federated States of Micronesia and such a code is desirable to ensure the ethical conduct of all government employees and leaders and to prevent corruption; and

WHEREAS, a code of ethics for the National Government of the Federated States of Micronesia should include, but be limited to: standards for employee and workplace conduct, hiring practices, bidding and contracting processes and standards for services provided; and

WHEREAS, all branches of the National Government have an interest in a clear, straight forward quality code of ethics for the National Government of the Federated States of Micronesia being adopted, and a working group with participants from the executive, legislative and judiciary should be formed to work drafting the code of ethics; and

WHEREAS, the Congress of the Federated States of Micronesia wishes to express its strong desire that a code of ethics be adopted for the National Government of the Federated States of Micronesia; now, therefore,
BE IT RESOLVED by the Twenty First Congress of the Federated States of Micronesia, Second Regular Session, 2019, that Congress hereby requests the President to adopt a code of ethics for the National Government of the Federated States of Micronesia; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the Federated States of Micronesia.
