the compensation of such employees it deems necessary within the limits of available administrative funds budgeted for its operation, and it may contract for special actuarial and other counseling on a fee basis. It shall bond itself and its employees in such amounts as it shall fix. It shall receive audited accounts of the Social Security System within 90 adduce additional material evidence, and shows to the satisfaction of the Court that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce the evidence in the hearing before the Board or its authorized representatives, and that such evidence is competent, material, and substantial, the Court may order the additional evidence to be taken by the Board and to be adduced upon the hearing in such manner and upon such conditions as the Court considers proper. The Board may modify its findings and order after receipt of further evidence together with any modified or new findings or order. The judgment of the Court upon the record shall be final, subject to review by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court upon petition of any aggrieved party, including the Board, within 60 days from judgment.

employee are currently subject to any other recognized Social Security System. For the purposes of this act, any elected official in any Government unit or body in the Federated States of Micronesia is deemed to be an employee employed by a Federated States of Micronesia employer.
The governmental unit or body to which such person is elected is subject to the provisions in this act relating to the duty and obligations of a Federated States of Micronesia employer.

(2) Every person who:
(a) Is a fully insured individual, as defined in this act;
(b) Has attained age 60 years; and
(c) Has filed application for old age insurance shall be entitled to an old age insurance benefit for each month, beginning with the month for which both paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection are satisfied and ending with the month preceding the month in which he dies, subject to the earnings test as defined in this act.

Section 302. Surviving spouse's benefits. The surviving spouse of an individual who died fully insured, if such spouse has filed application, shall be entitled to a survivor insurance benefit for each month beginning with the month of death of the fully insured spouse and ending with the month preceding the month in which the surviving spouse dies or remarries; PROVIDED that such benefit shall be subject to the earnings test as defined in this act.

Section 303. Dependent's benefits; Disability benefits.
(1) Every surviving child who is dependent upon an individual entitled to old age benefits or who was dependent upon an individual who died fully insured or currently insured, shall be entitled, upon filing application, to a child's insurance benefit for each month beginning with the month of death of such individual and ending with the month preceding whichever of the following first occurs:
(a) Attainment of age 18 years, except that benefits are payable until the month before the attainment of age 22 so long as the beneficiary is a bona fide student, and except that benefits are payable during the disability of a child who was disabled before the tainment of age 22;
(b) Marriage; or
(c) Adoption.
(2) A child shall be deemed dependent upon his parent or adopter unless such individual was not living in the same household with or contributing to the support of such child. Child's insurance benefits shall be paid to the individual upon whom the child is currently dependent, except such benefit shall be subject to the earnings test as defined in this act.
(3) Every individual who is a fully and currently insured individual and is disabled and has been disabled for at least 3 full calendar months, upon filing an application for disability insurance benefits, shall be entitled to a disability insurance benefit for each month beginning with the first month of the waiting period and ending with the month preceding the month in which he dies or recovers from his disability, subject to the earnings test as defined in this act.
Section 304. Amount of retirement and disability insurance benefits.
(1) An insured eligible individual shall be paid a monthly old age benefit for life, except for any month of disqualification as provided by this act, in an amount calculated upon an annual basis of 12.6 percent of the first $10,000 of cumulative covered earnings, plus 2.1 percent of cumulative covered earnings in excess of $10,000 but not in excess of the next $30,000, plus 1.05 percent of cumulative covered earnings in excess of $40,000. Earnings for employment after commencement of payments for old age or disability insurance benefits shall be included in benefit calculations upon subsequent application for benefits, but such earnings shall be applicable for benefits for months after the calendar year in which such earnings occurred. For the purpose of this section cumulative covered earnings includes earnings on which contributions have been paid by the individual to the Trust Territory Social Security System.

(2) An insured, eligible individual shall be paid a minimum monthly benefit of $33.60 if the benefit amount calculated in accordance with subsection (1) of this section is less than $33.60 monthly.

(3) An individual who is both fully and currently insured and who has been under a disability for 3 full calendar months shall be paid a monthly benefit for life or until recovery from the disability, except for any month of disqualification as provided by this act, in an amount calculated in accordance with the preceding subsections of this section. Further, the amount of the benefit as so determined shall, if the individual is receiving a periodic workmen's compensation benefit, be reduced each month by the excess of the sum of the workmen's compensation benefit for that month and the benefit payable under this act over 80 percent of one-twelfth of the highest annual covered wages in the period consisting of the year in which the disability occurred and the preceding five years. If a workmen's compensation benefit was payable in periodic benefits but was commuted to a lump sum, for purposes of this subsection it will be considered that the periodic benefit originally available was paid in each month that it would have been paid if the commutation had not occurred.

Section 305. Reemployment after retirement. In the event an individual who is receiving retirement insurance benefits returns to covered employment, the benefit shall be recomputed at the end of the calendar year and paid as provided in this act beginning with the year after the calendar year the earnings were made.

Section 306. Amount of survivor insurance benefits.

(1) The surviving spouse of a fully insured worker eligible in accordance with section 303 shall be paid a monthly benefit or disability in an amount equal to 60 percent of the retirement or disability insurance benefit calculated for the deceased spouse at the date of death.

(2) Each eligible child of an insured worker shall be entitled to a monthly benefit of 15 percent of the retirement insurance benefit calculated for the deceased parent at the date of death.

(3) If the spouse of the deceased insured worker is eligible for retirement benefit based on his or her own employment coverage, the survivor insurance benefit shall be reduced by the amount of such retirement benefit.

(4) In no event shall the total survivor benefit paid to the spouse and children exceed the retirement benefit calculated for the decedent as of the date of death, nor shall it be less than $33.60 a month computed prior to the application of subsection (3) of this section.
Section 307. Lump sum benefits.

(1) When a worker dies and the benefits paid, including survivor benefit, have been less than 4 percent of his cumulative covered earnings, the survivors, heirs, or the estate of such individual shall be paid a lump sum benefit, after all rights to survivor benefits have terminated, in an amount equal to 4 percent of the decedent's cumulative covered earnings, reduced by the amount of any benefits paid to the insured worker and his eligible dependents. For the purpose of this section, cumulative covered earnings includes earnings on which contributions have been paid by the individual to the Trust Territory Social Security System.

(a) Spouse, if living, otherwise children in equal shares or guardian, if such children are minors;

(c) Duly appointed legal representatives of the deceased or, if none, person or persons determined to be entitled thereto under the laws and customs of the last domicile of the deceased person.

Section 308. Adjustments to correct for overpayments and underpayments.

(1) Whenever an error has been made with respect to insurance payments to an individual, proper adjustment shall be made, under regulations promulgated by the Board by increasing or decreasing subsequent payments to which such individual is entitled. If such individual dies before such adjustment has been completed, adjustment shall be made by increasing or decreasing subsequently paid survivor benefit payments payable with respect to the wages which were the basis of benefits of such deceased individual.

(2) No adjustment shall be made when adjustment or recovery would be against equity and good conscience.

Section 309. Payment of benefits to foreign citizens outside Federated States of Micronesia.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, no monthly benefits shall be paid under this chapter to any individual who is not a citizen or national of the Federated States of Micronesia for any month which is:

(b) Prior to the first month thereafter for all of which such individual has been in the Federated States of Micronesia. For purposes of this paragraph (1), after an individual has been outside the Federated States of Micronesia for any period of 30 consecutive days he shall be treated as remaining outside the Federated States of Micronesia until he has been in the Federated States of Micronesia for a period of 30 consecutive days.
Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to any individual who is a citizen of a foreign country which the Administrator finds has in effect a social insurance or pension system which is of general application in such country and under which:

(a) Periodic benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, are paid on account of old age, retirement, or death, and

Board of the Trust Territory Social Security System, taking into account the nature and complexity of the functions which are to be performed and the period of training which is required so that these functions may be properly performed by the staff of the Federated States of Micronesia

Social Security System which is allocated to the Federated States of Micronesia Social Security System shall continue to be invested in a pool with the funds of Trust Territory Social Security System and other successor Social Security Systems until such time following the termination of the agreement described in section 602 that the Federated States of Micronesia Social Security Board as trustees on behalf of covered employees and beneficiaries deems it prudent and advisable and in the best interest of persons insured under the Federated States of Micronesia Social Security System to modify the investment policy which has been followed by the Trust Territory Social Security Board. Until this time, separate accounts of each national system's proportionate share of the total invested assets shall be maintained.

shall be paid directly to and benefits paid directly by the Federated States of Micronesia Social Security Administration. Until such time as this occurs, the Trust Territory Social Security System shall maintain a separate account and collect contributions, pay benefits, and invest the excess of contribution income over benefit payments and administration expenses as an agent of the Federated States of Micronesia Social Security Board.

Section 605. Other administrative functions. Following the implementation of section 604, and until such time as the Federated States of Micronesia Social Security Board determines that in addition to those functions described in section 604, its Social Security

(2) At such time as the Trust Territory Social Security Administration ceases to have responsibility for any employees and beneficiaries under the Trust Territory Social Security System or any successor systems, and its affairs are wound up, the movable property of the Trust Territory Administration shall be distributed among the successor systems in the same proportions as the assets are apportioned under section 603.

Section 608. Reciprocal agreements. In view of the considerable intercountry migration among those countries whose nationals were or are members of the Trust Territory Social Security System, the Federated States of Micronesia Social Security Board shall endeavor to negotiate reciprocal agreements for social security coverage with the other successor systems to the Trust Territory Social Security System.

States of Micronesia for certain purposes.
