A BILL FOR AN ACT

To further amend title 12 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia by adding a new Chapter 16 to establish the Attorney General Investigatory Act for the purpose of authorizing the Attorney General of the Federated States of Micronesia to issue administrative summonses and administer oaths in conducting criminal and civil investigations, and for other purposes.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE CONGRESS OF THE FEDERATED STATES OF MICRONESIA:

Section 1. Title 12 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by enacting a new Chapter 16 to be entitled "Attorney General's Investigatory Act."

Section 2. Title 12 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by enacting a new section 1601 of chapter 16 to read as follows:

"Section 1601. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the Attorney General's Investigatory Act."

Section 3. Title 12 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 1602 of chapter 16 to read as follows:

"Section 1602. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below:

(1) "Attorney General" means the Attorney General of the Federated States of Micronesia.

(2) "National Government Agency" means any branch, department, office, division, board, bureau, commission, committee, institution, or authority of the National Government of the Federated States of Micronesia.

(3) "Person" means natural persons, corporations, trusts, partnerships, incorporated or unincorporated, National and State Government.
adencies and any other legal entity.

(4) "State Government Agency" means any branch,

department, office, division, board, bureau,

commission, committee, institution, or authority of any State Government of the Federated States of Micronesia."

Section 4. Title 12 of the Code of the Federated States

of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section

1603 of chapter 16 to read as follows:

"Section 1603. Authority of the Attorney General to Investigate.

(1) When it appears to the Attorney General

that a person has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in any act or practice violative of the laws of the Federated States of Micronesia, or when he believes it to be in the public interest that an investigation should be made to ascertain whether a person in fact has engaged in, is engaging in, or is about to engage in such act or practice, he may execute in writing and cause to be served upon any person who is believed to have information,

documentary material, or physical evidence relevant to the alleged or suspected violation, an administrative summons requiring such person to furnish, under oath or otherwise, any or all of the following: a statement setting forth the relevant facts and circumstances of which he has knowledge, or to appear and testify, or to produce relevant documentary material or physical evidence for examination, at such reasonable time and place as may be stated in the investigative demand.

(2) At any time before the return date specified in an administrative summons, or within 10 calendar days after the summons has been served, whichever period is shorter, a petition to extend the return date, or to quash or modify the summons, stating good cause, may be filed in the Trial Division of the Supreme Court in the State where the person served with the demand resides or has his principal place of business."

Section 5. Title 12 of the Code of the Federated States of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 1604 of chapter 16 to read as follows:

"Section 1604. Services of Administrative Summons. Service of any administrative summons under this chapter shall be made personally within the Federated States of Micronesia, but if such cannot be obtained, substituted service therefor may be made in the following manner:

(1) Personal service thereof without the Federated States of Micronesia; or

(2) The mailing thereof by certified mail to the last known place of business, residence or abode
within or without the Federated States of Micronesia of such person for whom the same is intended; or

(3) Such service as the Supreme Court may direct in lieu of personal service within the Federated States of Micronesia."

Section 6. Title 12 of the Code of the Federated States
of Micronesia is hereby further amended by adding a new section 1605 of chapter 16 to read as follows:

"Section 1605. Powers of the Attorney General to Investigate.

(1) To accomplish the objectives and duties authorized by this chapter, the Attorney General may issue administrative summonses to any person, administer oaths or affirmation to any person, and question any person under oath regarding matters reasonable and relevant to the subject of the investigation.

(2) The Attorney General may issue
administrative summonses requiring the production of books, records, documents, or other relevant papers
or objects necessary to conduct a full and complete
investigation."
(3) Any person who willfully fails or refuses to appear upon receiving service of an administrative summons, or who willfully fails or refuses to produce any books, records, documents, or other relevant papers or objects designated in an administrative summons properly issued by the Attorney General upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned for not more than 1 year, or both.

(4) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as denying any person subject to an administrative summons their rights of due process as authorized under the rules of evidence of the Supreme Court of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Constitution of the Federated States of Micronesia, or other applicable law.

(5) Information obtained pursuant to the powers conferred by this chapter shall not be made public or disclosed by the Attorney General or his employees beyond the extent necessary for law enforcement purposes in the public interest."
Section 7. This act shall become law upon approval by the President of the Federated States of Micronesia or upon its becoming law without such approval.
